

Post Reading Checklist

Once you are done with the text, check items off the list that you have completed

- Summarize what you have read by restating main ideas from the text.
- Evaluate marginal notes for understanding.
- Reread any passages that you did not understand.
- Apply new ideas from the text to broader situations to extend thinking.
- Evaluate the ideas presented in the text.
- Jot down any questions you still have about the topic.
- Use study strategies like note taking, locating, and remembering to improve comprehension.
- Fill in the Novel Data sheet in its entirety
- Write the short and extended responses based on your notes and understanding.
- Write the essays assigned to your novel using support from text.
- Check your teacher's web page (www.teacherweb.com) for assignment due dates and novel class discussions.